Men Favor Math; Women English

English and math proved to be the two most favorite College subjects of students participating in The Martlet survey. Although each polled about 19 per cent of the total vote, English had 35 favorite sons (and daughters) while math had 34.

Among female students English was most favored with 13 supporters (22 per cent). Psychology came second with 10 favoring it (17 per cent) and history and chemistry tied with 7 each (12 per cent). The others, with the number favoring it in brackets were: math (6), French (4), don't know (3), sociol-ogy (2), biology (2), German (2), Latin (1) and philosophy (1).

$100 Benny Nicholas Award for Best Student Writer

The Victoria Daily Times has established a $100 annual award perpetuate the memory of their late, great editor, B.C. Nicholas. It will be given each year to the student of Victoria College who 'submits the best essay, poem, play or article."

Known as "The Benny Nicholas Memorial Award," it will be awarded in June. Deadline for entries is April 30.

A committee of the College Faculty, under Mr. R. Wallace, chairman of the Scholarship Committee, will choose the six best entries and submit them to a final selection committee.

lege students. Mr. Howatson, faculty adviser, observed that in his opinion there was a group of students at College bent on vandalism. He cited the instance of a thunderflash explosion in the cafeteria as an example.

At this point the case of a girl throwing a glass across the cafeteria became a topic for discussion. When was discovered that a Normal School girl had thrown it at a Col-lege boy, Mr. English reportedly asserted that she had been tormented to the point of having to relieve her emotions. Lyle Robertson jokingly suggested that Normal School stu-dents should be barred from the cafeteria

Walt Young told the meeting that according to Mr. English the so-called Men's Commons had not been the Men's Commons since the former library had been reopened. However, the room, already reopened, will be properly furnished as a Men's Com-mons for Victoria College.

Council President Frey prepared his campaign against vandalism by stating that the Council would take action against any person or persons wilfully damaging College property. Is This Cooperation?

Since the discussion took place at the Council meetings instances of inconsistency in treatment have taken place according to several Council members.

In one instance College quite willingly loaned Normal School the Council owned public address system when the future teachers were pre-paring for an invasion by Vancouver Normal. They wanted it for use in the gymnasium as the Normal School PA was to be used at the same time in the auditorium.

Last year, College was unsuccessful n obtaining the Normal School PA (before College owned one) for use at several auditorium meetings. In-stead they had to go to the expense of renting the equipment.

In another instance, many students expressed surprise at seeing the dec-orations and signs for the Vancouver Normal School invasion affixed to the walls of the main building and cafeteria with cellophane tape. Whenever any College students have attempted to post signs on the walls in this manner they have been, in most cases, hurriedly told that Provincial Government regulations prohibit affixing signs to walls of any building in this manner. They point out that notices Treasurer of the A.M.S. Conway manner. They point out that notices again deplored the inactivity of the may only be posted on the regular notice boards.

Tabulated Survey Results

Tabulated results of The Martlet survey listed below include the answers to all but a few questions. Where a part of a question is omitted it is because no one fell into this category. In other cases only those who marked yes are listed where everyone else marked no, no one leaving it blank or using the letter DK (don't know).

182 out of 300 students completed the poll which is 60.5 per cent of the total. 124 of these were male (68 per cent of 182) and 58 female (32 per cent).

The first number listed below is the number of students who marked it, the number in the bracket is what per cent the first number is of the 124 males (in the first column) 58 females (second kick), and a second half penalty, try, column) and 182 males and females combined (third column). In all and convert by Gerry Rovers. Rovers' try was the prettiest of the cases the percentage was taken to the nearest whole number.

How much this correspondent missed by crossing on the afternoon boat has not yet been fully established, but the general tenor of the reports already flooding this office seem to indicate that what he missed was certainly no ladies' tea party. Incidentally, he didn't do too badly himself.

At the risk of offending the A.A. I will say that I have been led to believe that there were two types of travellers: those who drank and those who had a lousy time. Of the first preserve their spirits (no cigar) past 8 a.m.

Much as your correspondent is disappointed by one of the more recategory I'll lay a dollar to a nickel grettable incidents of this trip, he is that less than 10 per cent managed to heartened to find that the milk of kindness has not entirely human
